ABSTRACT

Numerous tables summarize quantitative data for the State of South Carolina and each school district in the state that are relevant to public education. Data for the 1989-90 school year are presented along with data beginning with the reference or base year of 1969-70. The state summaries include tabulated statistical data concerning the following: general information, state expenditures, enrollment, revenue, average teacher salaries, staffing, Chapter 1 programs, migrant students, remedial/compensatory students, handicapped students, vocational education, dropouts, basic skills assessment, cognitive skills assessment, statewide testing program, transportation, school food program, instructional television, adult education, graduates, Scholastic Aptitude Test scores, and average daily membership. The school district summaries provide tabulated statistical data concerning the following: enrollment, mills levied, expenditures, average teacher salaries, average principal salaries, average superintendent salaries, staffing, Chapter 1 programs, remedial/compensatory students, handicapped students, vocational education, basic skills assessment program, cognitive skills assessment, statewide testing program, adult education, dropouts, and graduates. It is noted that the number of students enrolled in grades 1 through 12 in South Carolina public and private schools decreased from 689,418 in 1969-70 to 625,015 in 1989-90, a decrease primarily due to lower birth rates in the state. However, the population of South Carolina and the Southeast increased 36% from 1970 to 1989, compared to a nationwide population increase of 21% during that same period. A county outline map showing school districts in South Carolina and a 27-item bibliography are appended. (RLC)

HIGHLIGHTS

> The population of South Carolina and the Southeast increased 36% from 1970 to 1989 compared to a nationwide population increase of 21%.

> Per Capita personal income in South Carolina increased 354% since 1970 compared to a 366% increase for the Southeast and 334% increase for the Nation since 1970. However, South Carolina's 1989 per capita income of $13,634 was about 89% of that for the Southeast and about 77% of that for the Nation.

> The portion of the South Carolina budget allocated to all education fell from 56.75% in Fiscal Year 1980 to 51.14% in Fiscal Year 1989.

> The number of children enrolled in grades 1-12 in South Carolina public and private schools decreased from 689,418 in 1969-70 to 625,015 in 1989-90. This decrease was due primarily to lower birth rates.

> Considering students enrolled in all schools across the State, the portion enrolled in public schools (grades 1-12) decreased from 96.7% in 1969-70 to 94.3% in 1989-90. Over the same time period and for the same grades, the portion of students in private schools increased from 3.3% to 5.7%. From 1988 to 1990, the portion of students in public schools including grades K-12 increased about .1% (93.4% to 93.5%). Whereas, the portion of K-12 students reported as attending private schools decreased about .1% (6.6% to 6.5%).

> Between 1970 and 1990, the portion of revenue for public education from federal sources decreased for South Carolina, the Southeast, and the Nation. For South Carolina, the portion of actual revenue from state sources increased from 49.8% in 1970 to 50.5% in 1990 with the portion from local sources increasing over the same time period from 35.8% to 41.3%. Similar increases in the portion of funds from state and local sources were seen for the Southeast as well. But according to revenue estimates produced by the National Education Association, the Nation experienced a shift away from local sources (51.8% in 1970 to 44.3% in 1990) to state sources (40.9% in 1970 to 49.4% in 1990) for the support of public education.

> Even though South Carolina's actual public school per pupil expenditure increased over 500% from 1969-70 to 1989-90, the State still spent, according to the National Education Association, about $400 per pupil less than the Southeast and about $1,200 per pupil less than the Nation.

> For the last three school years (1987-88 - 1989-90), the South Carolina classroom teacher average salary exceeded the goal of meeting the calculated average salary for the Southeast, as mandated and presented in the Budget Provisos. Even though the State's classroom teacher average salary increased over 290% ($6,892 in 1969-70 to $27,217 in 1989-90), it still was below that paid in the neighboring states of Georgia ($27,892) and North Carolina ($27,814).

> As the total number of students served in schools across the State declined since 1969-70, the number of public and private students served in Chapter 1 (low income only) Programs plunged even further. In 1969-70, a little over 300,000 students qualified for services within these programs. By 1989-90, only a little over 60,000 were reported.

> The average number of students served by the free or reduced-price lunch program decreased 21% from October 1974 to October 1989. The average daily participation in the total school lunch program decreased 10% over this same period of time.

> The number of public school students transported daily at public expense increased about 5% from 1969-70 to 1989-90. Total reported miles traveled by school buses over the course of the school year increased 49% from 1969-70 to 1989-90.

> The percentage of public high school graduates entering all post-secondary schools increased from 49.6% in 1969-70 to 55.0% in 1988-89.

> The number of first grade students ready to begin first grade work, as tested by the Cognitive Skills Assessment Battery, increased from 60.2% in the Fall of 1979 to 74.4% in the Fall of 1989. In the last three years, first grade student readiness for the State was above 74%.

> Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) average scores for South Carolina high school seniors increased 14 points on the verbal section and 26 points on the math section from 1969-70 to 1989-90. Nationally, average scores for the verbal section dropped 36 points; and average scores for the math section dropped 12 points since 1969-70.

[1] Includes gifted and talented, special education, and other programs.

[2] Since students may be participating in more than one program area and require transportation, the state total for students is a duplicated count.

[3] Student eligibility is determined by family size and income as declared by parents. These students are also eligible for free or reduced-price breakfast if the schools participate in the School Breakfast Program. All South Carolina public schools participate in the School Lunch Program, but not all schools participate in the Breakfast Program. Because students who may be eligible for free or reduced-price meals may chose not to apply or participate, the number of eligible students may not represent total eligible students.

[1] 1969-70 figures exclude adult, nonpublic school, and public library expenditures. For all other years adult programs, community services, and pupil activity funds have been excluded. Funds expended by county boards and area vocational centers have been prorated to the appropriate districts based on pupils served for school years 1986-87 through 1988-89.

[2] Dorchester District 1 and Dorchester District 3 combined during the 1986-87 school year to form Dorchester 4.

[3] Includes non adult education expenditures for Palmetto Unified school district.

Explanatory Notes:

Figures for 1969-70 reflect per pupil expenditures based on average daily attendance for grades 1-12. Expenditures were adjusted to exclude expenditures for voluntary kindergarten. All other years were based on average daily membership and include grades K-12. Kindergarten students were included in the per pupil expenditure calculations at .5 FTE.

Current operating expenditures exclude capital outlay and debt retirement accounts.

[2] Full-Time Equivalency (FTE) is the amount of employed time required in a less than full-time position expressed in proportion to that required in a full-time position with "1" representing one full-time position. The total FTE is derived by dividing the amount of employed time required in the less than full-time position by the amount of employed time required in a corresponding full-time position. All FTE represented above are expressed in tenths.

[3] Dorchester District 1 and Dorchester District 3 combined during the 1986-87 school year to form Dorchester 4.

[1] The minimum statewide standard is set at a score of 700 on a scale that may range from 200 to 1100.

[2] Dorchester District 1 and Dorchester District 3 combined during the 1986-87 school year to form Dorchester 4.

Explanatory Notes:

BSAP tests are criterion-referenced and are created to determine whether a student's performance meets the state standard, not for the comparison of districts.

Comparable information for 1969-70 is not available.

[1] The minimum statewide standard is set at a score of 700 on a scale that may range from 200 to 1100.

[2] Dorchester District 1 and Dorchester District 3 combined during the 1986-87 school year to form Dorchester 4.

Explanatory Notes:

BSAP tests are criterion-referenced and are created to determine whether a student's performance meets the state standard, not for the comparison of districts.

Comparable information for 1969-70 is not available.

[1] The minimum statewide standard is set at a score of 700 on a scale that may range from 200 to 1100.

[2] Dorchester District 1 and Dorchester District 3 combined during the 1986-87 school year to form Dorchester 4.

Explanatory Notes:

BSAP tests are criterion-referenced and are created to determine whether a student's performance meets the state standard, not for the comparison of districts.

[1] Student eligibility for free or reduced-price meals is determined by family size and income as declared by parents. All South Carolina public schools participate in the School Lunch Program, but not all schools participate in the School Breakfast Program. If the schools participate in the School Breakfast Program, students are also eligible for free or reduced-price breakfast. Because students who may be eligible for free or reduced-price meals may choose not to apply or participate, the number and rate of eligible students may not represent total eligible students.

[2] Average Daily Membership, 15-Day Period. Membership figures include grades K-12 although school meals may not be made available to kindergarten students in all districts.

[3] Percent was computed excluding the number of eligible students and membership in South Carolina Youth Services.

[1] Student eligibility for free or reduced-price meals is determined by family size and income as declared by parents. All South Carolina public schools participate in the School Lunch Program, but not all schools participate in the School Breakfast Program. If the schools participate in the School Breakfast Program, students are also eligible for free or reduced-price breakfast. Because students who may be eligible for free or reduced-price meals may choose not to apply or participate, the number and rate of eligible students may not represent total eligible students.

[2] Average Daily Membership, 15-Day Period. Membership figures include grades K-12 although school meals may not be made available to kindergarten students in all districts.

[3] Dorchester District 1 and Dorchester District 2 combined during the 1986-87 school year to form Dorchester 4.

[4] Percent was computed excluding the number of eligible students and membership in South Carolina Youth Services.

[1] A new dropout data collection system was instituted beginning with the 1989-90 school year. Previous data were collected at the end of each 180-day school year in grades one through twelve. The current collection system defines the school year as a twelve-month period of time beginning with the first day of school in the fall and includes only grades six through twelve. Percent of enrollment is computed based on enrollment for grades six through twelve.

[2] Dorchester District 1 and Dorchester District 3 combined during the 1986-87 school year to form Dorchester 4.
